FUNERAL, EXECUTORS, GUARDIANS

12. Funeral

You may specify in your Will if you wish to be:

Buried

Cremated

No preference

Please note:

- You should make these wishes known to your immediate family as well and not rely on what is in your Will
- If you wish to leave any part of your body for medical purposes tell your family and your doctor and carry a donor card

13. Executors

You must appoint executors to carry out the instructions in your Will. It is wise to have at least two and you may appoint your husband/wife/partner as one. You should name other executors to act if he/she is unable to do so. Partners of our firm will be pleased to act as your executors, either alone or with a member of your family or friend.

List below up to four chosen executors:

Would you like me your act as your executor ?

Yes No

14. Guardians

You may want to appoint one or two people to act as guardian(s) for children under 18. The appointment will usually only apply if you and the child's other parent are both dead. The position may be different if you are a single parent. Discuss this with the solicitor at your appointment. Guardianship involves a lot of responsibility and you should ask people to agree to act before appointing them.

BENEFICIARIES

The main part of your estate is called "the residue". (This is dealt with at question 17). Before giving away the residue you may wish to make certain gifts of cash or personal belongings to individual children, grandchildren, friends or to charities. These will be known as "beneficiaries".

16. Gifts of Articles

Please give the names and addresses of people to whom you wish to leave specific items and a full description of the article, to enable it to be identified. Please note that if you sell or replace any of these items, the beneficiary will get nothing – he or she will not be given the substituted item or the cash equivalent.

17. The Residue

This all that you own except jointly owned property and the gifts made in questions 15 and 16. Please state below who is to receive the residue on your death and who is to receive it if they die before you. If there are gifts to your children, we may suggest a provision that if any of them dies before you leaving children of his/her own, those children (your grandchildren) will inherit their parent’s share.

The following are the more common provisions made. If you wish to use one of these tick the appropriate box; if not, please go to question 18.

(a) Everything to my husband/wife/partner named at question 2 above, outright, but if he/she has died then to my children, named at question 4 above, equally;

(b) Everything to my children, named at question 4 above, equally and any other children of mine;

You may choose the age at which your children will receive their entitlement. Insert choice from 18, 21 or 25 years in this box

(c) To my husband/wife/partner named at question 2 above, but if he/she has died before me to the person(s)/organisation(s) named in the box below. If not in equal shares, then show the share each is to take.

18. If none of the above choices is appropriate

Please set out below who is to receive the residue and, if more than one person or organisation is involved, in what shares ?
